CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP
NEW WAR DEPARTMENT BUILDING
21st and VIRGINIA AVENUE, N. W.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

19 April 1946

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD:

SUBJECT: Survey of the Function of Monitoring Press and Propaganda
Broadcasts of Foreign Powers

1. ^{25X1A} [redacted] draft (enclosed) was reviewed ^{25X1A} this date, from 10:00 until 11:30, and from 1:00 to 3:30. Colonel [redacted] to leave at 1:40.

2. ^{25X1A} During the remainder ^{25X1A} of the review, [redacted] Colonel [redacted] and Colonel [redacted] examined in detail the specific question of how the broadcast collecting function could be most efficiently operated. This in reference to para 3 c of the President's Directive of 22 January 1946. After examining all the factors, it appeared that a finding could be justified as follows: The most efficient system will be for the War Department to operate the service, in such a way as to carry out collecting and distributing missions assigned by the Director, Central Intelligence Group.

^{25X1A} 25X1A. Captain [redacted] then turned the drafts over to Colonel [redacted] to revise on that basis, and submit a redraft of action on Monday, 22 April.
